Stewardship Reflection

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13) It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

He played an essential role in the greatest event in human history; husband to Mary, adopted Father of Jesus Christ, a quiet carpenter and a righteous man. Aside from these things we don't know much about St. Joseph, but what we do know can help us to be better men, husbands, and fathers. Join Fr. John Riley at the Arlington Diocese Retreat Center at the edge of the Shenandoah Mountains in White Post, VA to "rest and pray" with Christ. This retreat begins at 6 pm Friday July 11 and concludes Sunday July 13 with lunch at noon. Retreat cost is $299. The aesthetic value of creation cannot be overlooked. Our very contact with nature has a deep restorative power; contemplation of its magnificence imparts peace and serenity. The Bible speaks again and again of the goodness and beauty of creation, which is called to glorify God.

- St. John Paul II (1990, Remarks for The World Day of Peace)
